

Where are your students learning about global business?

Nippon Caterpillar | Tokyo, Japan

Academy of International Business Southeast and The Asia Institute GLOBAL BUSINESS EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships Overview

To support the global competencies and knowledge of international business students, the Academy of International Business – Southeast and The Asia Institute are offering $1,000 in scholarship funding, which will support students seeking to participate in global learning experiences in Asia in 2017. The annual scholarships will be launched at the 2016 AIB-SE Annual Conferences, which will be held November 10-14, in Tampa, Florida and Cozumel, Mexico.

Eligibility and Participation

- All submissions should be jointly submitted by a student and a faculty advisor. The faculty advisor can either be a Study Abroad Officer or a Professor. Preferably this individual would have a working relationship with the student applicant.
- Submissions will be accepted from any undergraduate, graduate or doctoral student who is attending a university in the United States and whose minor, major, masters or doctoral degree is in the field of international business.
- Student applicants should be seeking to participate in a global learning experience related to international business in Asia in 2017. The global learning experience can be:
 1. Short-term faculty-led program (10 days - 8 weeks)
 2. Semester or full year study abroad program
 3. International internship (6 weeks minimum)
 4. International scholarly research (4 weeks minimum)
- Student-faculty joint submissions should be submitted no later than February 1, 2017.

*Submissions will be accepted only from students who have selected a global learning experience in a country different from their nationality and/or different from the country that issued their passport.

For all questions and to submit an application, please contact:
Eva Li, Scholarship Coordinator
eva.li@asiainstitute.org

For more details on the AIB-SE 2016 conference, please visit:
www.aibse.org

